Prayer Matters!

'Benefice Prayers' Returns - Easter Saturday 9.30am in Ilchester church.

We pray for the troubled nations of the world — Syria, Myanmar, Sudan, Yemen, Afghanistan, Ukraine. For the ongoing impact of the Covid-19 pandemic. For the very many local Armed Forces deployed at this time.

The appointment of a new Diocesan Bishop. (May be announced at Easter)

For our church's engagement with our local community and jubilee celebrations this year. For plans for street celebrations, fetes, a school 'coronation', a story of the Queen's reign through art and flowers.

For the sick and those needing care; Shirley and Pat

In memorial - Betty Fieldhouse; Barbara Banks; John Tucky; Peter Bartin; Gwyneth Sainsbury; Peter Goldring

Reception of Holy Communion

The PCCs have agreed that from Easter we will have the possibility of Communion in both kinds once more. Some may, however be reluctant to receive from the chalice — this is to be respected and is fine. It is accepted in Anglican theology that to receive in bread alone is to receive in both kinds. Please, if you do not wish to receive from the chalice simply return to your seat in the Chancel before the chalice is come to you at the rail. Personal 'intinction' is not appropriate.
